FRIDAY, Auguſt 7, 1730. NUMB. XVII.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Monday arrived the Mails from France, Holland and Flanders. Rome, July 18.

HOWEVER Heretics and Atheiſts, from the Length of the Conclave, and the Wranglings of the Cardinals, may take Occaſion to ſcoff and deride the Opinion, it will paſs with all pious and religious People for the immediate Work of the Holy Ghoſt, that ſo eminent a Perſon as Card. Corſini has been appointed to govern the Church. It is, however, too notorious to be concealed, that much Worldly-mindedneſs has reigned in this Conclave, perhaps more than in any other for ſome Ages paſt: For beſides that the Secular Intereſt of Princes has always been in View with ſome, Private Intereſt, Piques and Reſentments have been ſo with others; and would to God this were all! But alas! Report ſpeaks too loudly, that Vices no way becoming ſuch an Order of Men, and aſſembled together on ſo ſolemn an Occaſion, have been too much in Practice. What ſeems ſtrangeſt is, that a public Gaming-Table ſhould be allowed in ſuch a Place, and large Sums of Money have been played for. Card. Schonborn, is ſaid to have loſt 70,000 Scudi to Cards. Ottoboni, and Albani; but his ſaid Eminence (probably not without Reaſon) ſuſpecting ſome unfair Play, refuſed to pay, and, as is believed, leſt the Conclave on this Account, tho' it is reported he came out ſick of a Fever. The Pharaoh-Bank was broke the Morning of the Election. Card. Fini once reproaching the German Cardinals with their liberal Carouſings, in the Hearing of Card. Zinzendorf, the impatient German expreſſed his Reſentment by beſtowing on the ſober Italian a good Cuff on the Ear; whereupon a Fray enſued, in which ſome Attendants of the former were wounded, and if he himſelf had not found Means to eſcape, it is very doubtful how he would have got off.——But let us caſt a Veil over the other Enormities practiſed in this Conclave, and only ſay, that if God, by his Providence, did not over-rule the Deſigns of ſuch Men, what Deſolations ſhould we ſee in the Church!

" But another Hand, from the ſame Place, under July 22, " writes to the following Purport:" Viz.

We flatter ourſelves with a Series of happy Days, under the auſpicious Pontificate of Clement XII; nor can we but regret his too-advanced Age: And all this the rather, becauſe it is apparent he deſigns abſolutely to take the Adminiſtration into his own Hands. His Miniſters are forbid interfering with Petitions of any Sort, or with any Thing elſe whatever, not immediately within their reſpective Provinces, on Pain of being diſgraced. He alſo has counſelled all his Relations; " Never to recommend any Perſon " to fill up Court or other Vacancies; it being his firm Re- " ſolution to confer his Offices only on ſuch as he is ſatis- " fied are worthy his Favour." Card. Salviati requeſted him to beſtow the Short Cloak on Abbot Autenovi, one of the Pontiff's Nephews: But his Anſwer was: " My Ne- " phew's Advancement depends on his Behaviour." When ſome others aſſumed the Liberty of adviſing in Caſes of a like Nature, the Holy Father replied: " It is the Cardinals " Buſineſs to elect a Pope; but it is the Pope's Buſineſs to " chuſe his own Miniſters." Having ordered the Accounts of the Apoſtolic Chamber to be brought, and, at the ſame Time, inquired of the Treaſurer; "What Quantity of Caſh " he had there? And being told: " Only 1500 Scudi." His Holineſs expreſſed ſome Surpriſe, ſaying: " How! I " was richer when only a Cardinal, than I find myſelf now I " am Pope!" The 16th Inſt. was the Day of the Pontiff's Coronation, which was performed with all imaginable Pomp and Solemnity; and on the preceding Even. his Holineſs Elect cauſed 4000 Scudi to be diſtributed among a Multitude of Poor aſſembled in the Outer Court of the Belvedere. The 19th Prince Bartolomeo Corſini, the Eldeſt of his Nephews (who the Day before arrived here from Florence) had Audience of his Holineſs, who gave him a moſt affectionate Reception, and made him Captain of his Light-Horſe Guards.

Florence, July 22. The 15th Inſt. the French, Spaniſh and Engliſh Miniſters had Audience of the Grand Duke. The 18th, our Grand Princeſs went to S. Caio's without Porta Romana, to viſit and congratulate the two Siſters and two Nieces of his preſent Holineſs, who are Nuns in that Convent: As did alſo, the 20th, her Highneſs the Dowager Electreſs-Palatine. We were like to have had a dangerous Tumult, on Account of ſome Tradeſmen refuſing to ſhut up Shop, during the Feſtivals for the Pope's Election: But ſome of the moſt mutinous being puniſhed, thoſe Diſturbances were ſoon happily appeaſed.

Genoa, July 22. Monday came in a Felucca from Baſtia with Diſpatches from Signor Veneroſo, our Commiſſary-General in Corſica, which occaſioned the holding a Grand Council. The Advices from that Iſland import, that ſeveral Places, which hitherto had continued loyal to the Republic, have now declared for the Rebels. We are aſſured that the Government has nominated Deputies to repair thither, with full Power to grant all reaſonable Satisfaction to the Male-contents, in order to put an End to this Affair, of which we, daily more and more, dread the pernicious Conſequences.

Leghorn, July 22. Our Trade is very much ſtagnated, on Account of the preſent Circumſtances of public Affairs, being very much perplexed between the Hopes of Peace, and Fear of a Rupture. We had entertained ſtrong Notions of an Accommodation, from the late Choice of Card. Corſini for Pope; but Yeſterday Noon, a French Bark arrived here from Marſeilles, in leſs than 30 Hours from Toulon; by whom we are aſſured, that the French Squadron of Men of War, with Gallies and Tranſports, lay ready to put to Sea, and join the Spaniards, on Notice of their Approach: That 40,000 Sacks of Meal, and all other Neceſſaries for their Soldiers, &c. were provided; which makes us conclude, that the long talked-of Expedition will actually be undertaken; and in ſuch a Caſe the Imperialiſts will ſoon be ſo numerous, as to render it very unſafe for a Subject of the Allies of Seville to continue here. It is ſaid, Couriers from Rome have paſſed Piſa, with an Account of four Perſons being newly made Cardinals, and among them S. Bichi the King of Portugal's Favourite: The new Pope is much praiſed, behaving well; and it is ſaid, that he has ordered ſeveral of the late Pope's Creatures into Caſtle S. Angelo. But on two Accounts, more particularly, he is generally liked by the Romans; one by reaſon he has already a very conſiderable Eſtate of his own; and the other (which is truly popular) is his having lowered the Prices of Bread, Oil, Soap, &c. and diſtributed large Sums of Money among the Poor.——" If Signor Bichi has, at length, really ob- " tained a Cardinal's Hat from the new Pontiff (which was " ſo ſtrenuouſly ſollicited, by his Portugueſe Majeſty, and ſo " reſolutely denied, by the former Pontiff) we may ſoon ex- " pect to hear an End put to all Miſunderſtandings between " the Courts of Rome and Lisbon. This Accommodation " many are ſaid to dread exceedingly; and ſome very much to " wiſh for; but none ſo ardently as thoſe pious, zealous, " good Gentlemen, the Inquiſitors of Portugal.

Venice, July 92. Signor Rezza of Ferrara, a Native of the Milaneſe, has undertaken to render the Commerce of Trieſte as flouriſhing as any Maritime City in Italy; and has engaged himſelf, by a Treaty made with the Emperor's Miniſters for this End, to cauſe to paſs thither Merchants and Merchandizes from Genoa, Leghorn, Florence, Milan, Parma, Placentia, Mantua, Modena, Bologna, Ferrara, and from all Places in Lombardy, on board Barks, orderly waiting at Pont de Lagnoſco, on the Po, and at Trieſte: Theſe Barks, of about five Tons Burden, are to carry Imperial Colours; and will depart regularly every 15 Days; the Undertaker giving Security for whatever Goods, &c. ſhall be delivered into his Cuſtody.

Barcelona, July 22. Nothing is wanting requiſite for compleating the intended Expedition, except Money, without which it will be very difficult to get the Fleet to Sea: But the Flota is ſpeedily expected; and it is not doubted but their Arrival will furniſh his Majeſty with a Sufficiency to defray all Charges.— The Number of Ships of War, with the Tranſports taken into his Majeſty's Service for this Expedition, is computed to amount to 400 Sail, excluſive of thoſe which the Engliſh, French and Dutch are to furniſh.

Alicante, July 19. The Commiſſaries have now got ſuch a ſufficient Number of Tranſports for the Foot Service, that none are detained which have any Merchandize on board; and ſome who have been taken up near three Weeks are now diſcharged, on account of being ſo ſmall, and not fit for the Horſe Service, particularly the Hannah Sloop and the Bonetta, which were diſcharged the 17th, and are not likely to receive any Satisfaction for the Time they have loſt. Money is very much wanted for the Advanced Pay to the Tranſports, and to defray the other neceſſary Expences. It is believed, that 1000 Foot and 4000 Horſe will be ſhipped off here for the Expedition to Italy.—— Our Capt. Gen. having been applied to by the Maſters of the Tranſports, for the two Months Advance Pay, which by Agreement they were to have, aſſured them, that he momently expected Remittances from Court to diſcharge all Demands, and promiſed to do them ſtrict Juſtice.——The Britiſh Conſul, this Day, preſents to the Miniſter of his Nation, at our Court, the Caſe of the Britiſh Ships in his Catholic Majeſty's Service, which will doubtleſs forward the Money for Payment.——Here are near 20,000 Horſe and Foot in our Neighbourhood, moſt of which are to imbark here.

Madrid, July 28. They are raiſing additional Recruits, throughout this Kingdom, to fill up the Vacancies in the Troops: And it is talked, that ſeveral new Men of War are to put on the Stocks. Mean while our Line-of-Battel Ships are in Number 20; and we hear 30 Frigats from 16 to 20 Guns. The Flota from Havana is expected at Cadiz next Week.

Hague, Auguſt 6. Several more Perſons ſuſpected of Sodomitical Practices are gone hence, to avoid being apprehended.——A Diſpute has riſen between the Zealanders and the Weſt India Company, about an Encroachment on the Agreement lately made for the Former's trading on the Coaſt of Africa; the Zealanders pretending, that the Liberty of Trading ought to extend to Surinam, and the Company inſiſting on the contrary; alledging, that they have, for a long Time, had a peculiar Right to furniſh that Colony with Slaves, and even by a Contract with the Society of Surinam, and refuſe to depart from it. The Miniſter of Bavaria was invited Yeſterday to a Conference with the States Deputies, on account of the Jewels pawned to the City of Amſterdam by the late Elector, and preſſed the Payment of the Intereſt, or redeeming of the Jewels; declaring, that they cannot admit of any farther Delays, and muſt conſequently proceed to a public Sale of them; which the ſaid Miniſter took Time to report to his Court. M. de Ginkel, Miniſter from the States to the Court of Berlin, has deſired their High Mightineſſes Leave to take a Turn hither on his private Affairs, during the Progreſs of the King of Pruſſia, to which they have not yet thought fit to conſent.

Paris, Auguſt 9. Her Majeſty, now entered the 9th Month of her Pregnancy, enjoys a perfect State of Health.——From the Regiment of Saillant, 100 Soldiers are ſent for to Compeigne, to haſten the perfecting the Bridge: To each of them the King gives per Diem 20 Sols, while ſo employed, beſides their daily Allowance of 12 Sols from the Undertaker.——A Boat from Conflans, with 50,000 Livres worth of painted Linnens, has been lately ſeized; and divers Perſons taken up, being accuſed of carrying on that prohibited Commerce.——Three Printers, convicted of printing Libels and other obnoxious Pieces, were, on the 3d Inſt. expoſed in the Square before our Town-Houſe, faſtened to Poſts by Iron Collars round their Necks; and a Fourth, having abſconded, ſtood in Effigie. " This " French Pillory is called Carcan."——Pierre de la Ricut, Biſhop of Angers, lately died ſuddenly.——The young Count D'Alais, the Prince of Conti's Brother, died here, the 8th paſt, in his 9th Year.——The King of Denmark is much indiſpoſed: His Poliſh Majeſty is not very well: And the Electoral Prince of Saxony lies ill of a Fever.

By our laſt Letters from Barcelona we are aſſured, that Orders are ſent thither, from Court, for Part of the Troops, which were to imbark there, to return to their former Quarters; and the reſt are to remain in that Principality, to conſume the Forage and Proviſions there amaſſed, to prevent their being ſpoiled.——" What does this look like!

Hague, Auguſt 11. We learn from Vienna, that Marquis Silvano, the Grand Duke of Tuſcany's Miniſter, has agreed with the Imperial Court, in the Name of his Maſter: That in Caſe of a Rupture in Italy, 12,000 Imperialiſts ſhould enter into the Grand Duke's Service, and ſhould take to him an Oath of Fidelity: That theſe Troops ſhould be paid by the Emperor, but that the Commiſſaries of his R. Highneſs ſhould furniſh them with Bread and Forage: That the Grand Duke ſhould keep a Body of 12,000 Men, of his own Troops, and the Imperialiſts ſhould be permitted to form the neceſſary Magazines in the Dominions of his R. Highneſs. They add, that the Emperor was ſtill reſolved to contribute on his Part all that lay in his Power to prevent a Rupture in Italy, having for that Purpoſe ordered his Miniſters to aſſure thoſe of the Potentates of the Treaty of Seville, that his Imperial Majeſty ſhould be glad to ſee Engliſh or Dutch Garriſons put into the Towns of Tuſcany, and that the moſt efficacious Meaſures were taken, in order to ſecure the Succeſſion of Tuſcany and Parma to the Infante Don Carlos.

HOME NEWS.

FRIDAY, July 31. From Dublin, under July 25, they write, that a Merchant of that City lately imported ſome Wheat from Sicily, and ſowed a Buſhel and a half of it in one Acre and a Quarter, Plantation Meaſure, at the Grove Mills, the Growth and Increaſe whereof is very ſurpriſing. Farmers come from all Parts of the Country to ſee it, and it is guarded Day and Night by ſeveral Men, leſt it ſhould be ſtole. Out of each Grain ſpring up 11 or 12 Stalks, and each Stalk produces 7 or 8 Heads, which all ſpread out at the Top as a Woman's Fan when opened. At a moderate Computation, the Buſhel and half will produce upwards of 40 Barrels. The Owner has already diſpoſed of a good Part of it, for Seed, at the Rate of 6l. Sterling per Barrel.

When his Majeſty's Ship the Greyhound, Sir Yelverton Peyton, left Havana, as mentioned in our former, the Flota (conſiſting of three Men of War, and nine Merchant Ships) were all arrived there: They had on board upwards of 16 Millions of Pieces of Eight in Coined Silver, regiſtered, and as much more of different Sorts of Goods, &c. as in the Whole amounted to about 24 Millions of Ducats. The 7th of June, N. S. had been fixed for their Departure; but it was believed, it would be the 15th before they departed for Cadiz. The Greyhound was 12 Days in her Paſſage from Havana to Virginia.

The Clergymen, who perform the Ceremonies of Matrimony within the Rules of the Fleet Priſon, are all under Proſecution, at the Suit of the Crown, for not giving their Certificates on Stamped Paper.

Wm. Gibſon, the famous Quaker of Grace-Church-Street, has taken the London-Aſſurance Coffee-Houſe, and will have a very quaint Sign, deſcribing his ill Uſage from the Quakers.

In St. Margaret's Pariſh-Church, at Paris, a very odd Accident happened to a half-married Lady; who during the Celebration of her Nuptials, was taken with very violent Pains of the Cholic, which obliged her to retire, and ſoon after was fairly delivered of a fine Child. Her almoſt-Spouſe, notwithſtanding her Forwardneſs to bring him an Heir to his Eſtate, with ſo very little Trouble to himſelf, was Churl enow to declare: "That he had no more "to ſay to her."

SATURDAY, Auguſt 1. A few Days paſt, at Paris, the Grandſon of M. de Chirac, Phyſician to the Duke of Orleans, of about ten Years old, maintained a Theſis in Philoſophy at the College of the Four Nations, and the Prelates, and other Perſons of Diſtinction who were preſent, were much ſurpriſed at the profound Learning of that Child, who anſwered every Argument propoſed.

From Paris they alſo write, that Ald. Parſons has deferred his Return to England for ſome Weeks; that he conſtantly hunts with the K. of France; and that his ſaid Majeſty deſigns to honour him ſo far as to ſit for his Picture, to be drawn as a Preſent to our future Lady-Mayoreſs.——And from the Hague we learn, that a Report is there current, that a Marriage is as good as concluded between the Prince of Orange, Stadholder of Frieſland, and the Third of our young Princeſſes.——Alſo, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has promiſed Princeſs Sophia, his Fourth Daughter, to the Hereditary Prince of Bareith.——Baron Sparre, his Swediſh Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary, is on his Way to England.

At Oxford, the 28th paſt. Wm. Fuller was executed, for the Murder of his Wife, by ſtrangling her with his Hands, which, however, he denied to the laſt. The Scholars inſiſted to have the Body, to anatomize; but the Proctors were preſent, and ordered it to be delivered to his Friends, who put it into a Coffin; but the Mob got the Coffin from them, and threw it into the Water: The Gownſmen leaped in like Spaniels, drew the Body out of the Coffin, dragged it thro' the Water, and carried it to Lincoln College: The Proctors purſued with all Speed; and having recovered it, had it conveyed to a Houſe in Bullock's-Lane: But the Gownſmen came ſoon after, broke open the Door, and had carried it about half a Mile, when the Proctors came and got Poſſeſſion of it again, and ſecured it in the Caſtle: Now the Mob diſperſed, tho' the Proclamation, which had been read by the Town-Clark, was little regarded. About Eleven that Night the Body was brought out of the Caſtle, in order to be conveyed away in a Boat; but in the Way to the Water-Side they were ſurpriſed by a Party of Gownſmen, who lay in Ambuſh, and ſeized the Corpſe, which is now diſſecting in Chriſt-Church College.

Yeſterday Morn. between Six and Seven a Fire broke out in the Warehouſe of Mr. Hoskins, a noted Sail-Maker, near S. Saviour's Dock (ſaid to be occaſioned by a Tar Kettle boiling over) which burned with much Violence till about a Dozen Houſes were conſumed, ſeveral of which were valuable, and among them thoſe of Capts. Brown, Hallam and Dornford; alſo the Houſe of Capt. Hughs was almoſt deſtroyed.

The ſame Day, ſeveral Regiments of Train-Bands being on their March thro' Jockey-Fields, were ſurpriſed by a ſmall Party of Foot detached from the Sheriff of Middleſex, when the whole Army was put to the Rout, and a certain Officer taken Priſoner; ſo that we are informed Siege will not be laid to Black-Mary's Hole this Campagne.

MONDAY, Auguſt 3. Saturday laſt, being the Anniverſary of the late King's Acceſſion to the Throne, Mr. Dogget's Livery Coat and Silver Badge, annually given to be rowed for, on that Day, from London Bridge to the Swan at Chelſea, by ſix young Watermen out of their Apprenſhips ſince the firſt of Auguſt, the preceding Year, was rowed for and won, by about ſix Boats Length, by John Burroughs, or Broughton, belonging to Hungerford Stairs. ——While they were rowing, the Son of Mr. Crave, her Majeſty's Staymaker, aged about 16, ſwimming in the Thames near Chelſea, was drowned, tho' ſome Perſons attempted to ſave him juſt as he was ſinking.

A few Hours after this Accident, as the Son of a noted Attorney, in Chancery-Lane, was paſſing thro' Little Jermyn-Street, a rotten Corniſh of a Houſe fell down upon his Head, ſo that his Brains came out.—He's ſince dead.

The ſame Even. came from Windſor (having taken Leave of their Majeſties and all the Royal Family) the Chirakee Indian King, and Prince, attended by their five Warriors, as they are called. Theſe illuſtrious Americans have taken up their Reſidence at the Houſe of Mr. Arne, Undertaker and Upholſterer in King-Street, Covent-Garden. being, as is ſaid, at their ſetting out for Europe, requeſted ſo to do, by the Emperor of the Mohocs and their Indian Majeſties his three Companions, who were here in 1710; by which it is evident, that thoſe grateful Monarchs are not unmindful of the Courteſies they received at the Hands of their quondam Landlord.

Sir Alex. Cuming, Bart. who brought over the Indian Chiefs from the Cherakee Nation, is now employed in drawing up a new Scheme, to be laid before Sir R. Walpole and the Board of Trade, whereby the Trade, Riches, and Power of the Britiſh Nation, and of all his Majeſty's Dominions may be increaſed, the Debts of the Nation paid, and an unexhauſtible Fund eſtabliſhed for Support of the Government, in caſe of an unavoidable War: And he propoſes to demonſtrate the Practicability of this Method, without having any additional Tax laid on the Subject, or putting the Nation to any Charge, by requiring only proper Powers for eſtabliſhing a Company of ſuch Perſons as will voluntarily make up the Sum of 100,000l. to be lent out, on good Securities, throughout his Majeſty's American Plantations, at the legal Intereſt of 10 per Cent.

Alſo, Yeſterday, the Marquis of Blandford was at Windſor-Caſtle, and preſented to his Majeſty the Trophy diſplayed upon Blenheim Houſe, in Oxfordſhire, laſt Whitſunday, in Commemoration of the Battel at Ramellies, purſuant to a Clauſe in the Statute of the 5th of Q. Anne, for ſettling the Manor and Park of Woodſtock, Blenheim Houſe, and the Hundred of Wotton, in Oxfordſhire, on the late D. of Marlborough and his Heirs.

At the Kingſton Aſſizes, which ended laſt Saturday, four received Sentence of Death; viz. Tho. Otway, Wm. Gardiner, Tho. Trumbull and Gilbert Wilſon.—Gardiner's Crime was entering the Houſe of a Victualler, in Thames-Ditton, and forcibly tearing away his Wife's Pocket, with near 5l. in Money. The others were for the Highway. One Bell is to pay 20 Marks and to ſuffer two Years Confinement, for forcing a Girl under ten Years old.——"The above Wilſon is the Luſty Man, mentioned in a late Daily-Journal, "&c. to have been taken, the 18th paſt, on the Clapham "Road, by the two Haſlets, Father and Son, and Tho. Clare; which notable Rencounterwe were obliged to "omit, with other Remarkables, for want of room. But "it was on the Evidence of one Rob. Philips (whom he "robbed on the Highway) that this jolly Free-Booter was "convicted: And we hear, that the 40l. (Part of the Re"ward for apprehending him) is to be thus divided: viz. "To Philips, 15l. To another Evidence, 3l. To "Clare, 7l. To Haſlet, Jun. 10l. To Haſlet, Sen. 5l. "——Now, if we may credit common Fame, had it not "been for the ſignal Proweſs of this latter, who ſo man"fully beſtirred himſelf with his Pitch-Fork (which had "it not been bent too much outwards or inwards, I really "forget which of the two, would have made terrible Work "with Mr. Wilſon's Poſteriors) this Luſty Man might, at "this very Juncture, have been collecting on his Majeſty's "High-Roads, as uſual. He is alſo vehemently ſuſpected "of being deeply concerned in the Murder of the Corn"Chandler, late of St. John's-Street."

TUESDAY, Auguſt 4. A Starch-Maker at Waterford, in Ireland, ſent a Couple of Labourers down into a Well, which wanted cleanſing. A very few Minutes after, they being called to and not anſwering, a certain crazy Tailor, wondering at their Silence, would needs go to ſee what was the Matter; but before he had got to the 7th Round of the Ladder, he dropped in ſtone dead; as were the two others whom he wanted to viſit at their ſubterraneous Occupation. A like immediate Fate had a poor Cat, on whom the amazed By-Standers ſoon after made the Experiment.——Madam Aylmer, of Ballycannon, in the County of Kildare, in the ſame Kingdom, airing herſelf and young Daughter, by a ſudden Start of the Horſe which drew her Chaiſe, was unhappily thrown into a Ditch, and died on the Spot: But the Child remained unhurt.——But, to aſſume a more pleaſing Theme (eſpecially to all good Proteſtants of that Kingdom) his Grace the Ld. Primate of all Ireland, had, on the 23d paſt, the great Satisfaction of Confirming (in the Pariſh Church of Antrim) the R. Hon. Earl of Antrim. Lady Helena Macdonnel, his ſaid Lordſhip's only Siſter, and the two eldeſt Sons of Ld. Viſc. Maſſereene, to the inexpreſſible Joy of all hearty Well-wiſhers to the Proteſtant Intereſt of the Province of Ulſter, &c.

At Edinburgh, a certain Quaker, from England, has publicly abjured the Extravagancies of his Perſuaſion, and is become a Presbyterian. Laſt Week, near the Weemys, ſome of his Majeſty's Cuſtom-Houſe Officers ſeized a Boat laden with Brandies; which as they were carrying off, a Mob aroſe and retook the Seizure: One of the Officers is ſaid to have loſt his Life in the Scuffle.

The five young adroit Adventurers, lately taken at Datchet (and who, as obſerved, have owned their Deſign of trying to get ſome of their Majeſties Monies, as they took the Air) have had the Addreſs to ſaw off their Irons in Reading Jail (where they ſtill are) and had infallibly got clear away, had not their Enterprize been opportunely blown by a Debtor under Confinement in the ſame Priſon: Six of their Aſſociates, well-mounted, waited their Eſcape at the Town's-End. When diſcovered, theſe Cavaliers were warmly purſued; but very unſucceſsfully; for they got off, tho' without thoſe they came for, who are to be proſecuted at his Majeſty's Expence.

In Lombard-Street a Coffee-Houſe is fitting up for Mrs. Anne Bond, pretty much noted of late for her Acquaintance with a certain Colonel: So that we now find, if the Story, not long ſince current, of her ſetting up a Tavern near Charing-Croſs, with the Sign of the Charteris, was not abſolutely groundleſs, at leaſt her Scheme is changed. However, ſome ſtill ſay, ſhe has 800l. to begin the World with; intirely owing to the Knowledge ſhe had of that Gentleman; tho' ſome others will have it quite otherwiſe.

Sunday laſt a great Diſturbance happened in St. Giles's Church at Divine Service, occaſioned by a Robber (ſaid to be a Highwayman) running in thither, in order to ſave himſelf from being taken; but the Purſuers following him with full Cry, kept Sight of him thro' the Crowd, and having taken him ſecured him in the Round-Houſe. The Miniſter was forced to leave off, and as the People tumbled down upon one another ſeveral were very much bruiſed. ——Others relate this Matter differently; viz. That as this Pick-Pocket (or what Rogue ſoever he is) was attempting to break out of the Round-Houſe, ſome People ran rudely into the Church, bawling amain Fryer, Fryer (ſo it ſeems the Beadle is named) which the terrified Congregation miſtaking for Fire! Fire! ſtrove to get out of the faſtened Pews, all which occaſioned ſuch cracking of Boards and Confuſion, that many Arms, Legs, &c. were either fractured or diſlocated. "Thus Accounts vary."——But what occurred, the End of laſt Week, in St. Bride's, Fleet-Street, was not attended with any ſuch fatal Conſequences: But the Rev. Mr. Barnes fairly loſt his fine new Bever Hat, which ſome good Maſter of his Trade found Means to convey from the Veſtry-Room, while the ſaid Rev. Gentleman was devoutly reading Prayers.

WEDNESDAY, Auguſt 5. We are aſſured from Berlin, that the Locuſts, which have utterly deſolated ſo many Parts of Brandenburg, &c. are now ſeen flying over that City and its Neighbourhood, in ſuch amazing Multitudes, that the very Sky is darkened.

Three Ships are arrived from Greenland, and gone into Deptford Dock, having caught ſeven Whales: There is yet no certain Account how the other Greenland Ships have ſucceeded.

It has been obſerved, that ſeveral very great Prizes, in the Dutch Lotteries, have lately fallen to England; viz. one of 50,000 Gilders, one of 40,000, one of 30,000, one of 20,000, and two of 10,000; beſides many other conſiderable Benefits.

A Complaint has been made to the Truſtees of the Turnpikes, between Kenſington and Colebrook, againſt one of their Servants, for beating two Colonels of the Foot Guards, who attempted to ride thro' Hounſlow Turnpike without paying the Toll, and afterwards, with their Horſe-Whips, very much flagellated the ſaid Fellow.

About Four Yeſterday Morn. was found, on a Bulk in Long-Acre, a new-born, dead, Male Infant, tied up in an old Blanket, with certain Marks of Violence on its Neck, which give Suſpicion of its having been inhumanly murdered.

The latter End of laſt Week, three Horſes, loaded with Tea, were ſeized by ſome of the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, at the Turnpike at New-Croſs, near Deptford; and we hear, that a Diſcovery was made of ſeveral more Strings of Horſes, one of 17 in Number, loaded with the ſame Commodity, by Means of one of the Horſes being taken ill on the Road at or near Eltham in Kent, which was alſo ſeized there, together with a Man who attended him; and that ſeveral concerned in this Smuggling Trade have or will be ſeverely fined.

From Fort-William at Bengall, they write, the 18th of Dec. laſt, that two Imperial Ships were then up that River; that the Engliſh Governor and Council had ordered the Duke of York, Capt. Somers, of 450 Tons, 30 Guns, and 90 Men; the Fordwich, Capt. Gosfright, of 480 Tons, 34 Guns, and 96 Men; and the Princeſs-Carolin Galley,

Capt. Brazier, of 196 Tons, 14 Guns, and 43 Men, to endeavour to take them, on their coming down the River, thoſe Ships having been commiſſioned by the Admiralty of Great-Britain for that Purpoſe. It is added, that this was done in Conjunction with the Dutch, who had furniſhed a like Number of Ships for that Service; and that ſuch Meaſures were taken as would render it impoſſible for them to eſcape. The Offenders had quitted their Factory at Coblon, on the Coaſt of Coromandel, and the Chief was come to the Factory at Bengall.——Mr. Stackhouſe was appointed Chief of the Engliſh Factory at Coſſimbuzar, in the room of Mr. Stevenſon, who was preparing to imbark for England.

It is believed, that Brig. Gen. Duboarguay will ſucceed the late Earl of Londonderry, as Capt. Gen. &c. of the Leeward Iſlands.

Mr. Ruſſel, his Majeſty's Conſul in the Emperor of Morocco's Dominions, is lately come from thence, having renewed the Treaty of Peace with the preſent Emperor Malei Abdallah, with ſeveral additional Articles for the farther Security and Advantage of his Majeſty's Subjects reſiding there, and trading to thoſe Parts; and he alſo brought from thence divers of his Majeſty's Subjects, who had, at ſeveral Times, been taken by the Sallee Rovers, and are now redeemed from Captivity by his Majeſty's Royal Bounty, viz. Engliſh,

Tho. Stratt and Edw. Harris, Maſters. John Parker, and Edm. Fletcher, Firſt Mates. Rich. Weſton, and John Barker, Second Mates. John Watſon and Wm. Whiteing, Carpenters. Wm. Stanes, Wm. Moſes, Rob. Medows, John Wilſon, John Blaney, Benj. Pitman, and Tho. Carpenter, Mariners. Germans his Majeſty's Subjects. Hendrick Henderſon, Elee Henderſon, Hinderſon Hendricks, Andrean Henderſon, Wellelmina Henderſon, Hendrick Tunis, Arbin Tunis

THURSDAY, Auguſt 6. Q. Anne's Private Chapel, in Windſor Caſtle, is given for a Chapel to the Germans of his Majeſty's Houſhold.

Tueſday laſt, at a Committee of Council held at the Cockpit, a Petition of the late Mr. Wood and others concerned with him, for a Charter to make Iron with Pit Coal, came under Conſideration; ſeveral Horſe-ſhoes, Nails, an Anchor, and many Tools made of the ſaid Iron were produced to the ſaid Committee; certain Affidavits were read and Witneſſes examined, and among the reſt, an eminent Iron-maſter, who gave a plain and rational Account of that Method of making Iron; ſeveral Queſtions were asked him, to which he gave ſuch Anſwers as ſeemed to be to their Satisfaction; but we cannot ſay whether a Charter will be granted or not.

A few Nights ago, a certain Officer of the Militia, and a Mercer near Covent Garden, being in Company together at a Pariſh Entertainment, the Mercer upbraided the Captain with Mal-Practices ſcandalous to his Commiſſion, in ſending a Fowl, Wine, &c. home to his Family at an Entertainment of the like Kind.——This ſo inraged the Captain, that he challenged the Mercer out; but he deſired to be excuſed till next Morning, when he promiſed to meet him Sword in Hand.——The Captain went out at the Time appointed; but not meeting with his Adverſary at the Place, went to his Houſe and inquired for him; but the Mercer, thinking himſelf ſafer in Bed than in a Combat with ſo brave an Adverſary, did not appear; which, adding a freſh Whet both to the Captain's Courage and Paſſion, he ſtuck his Sword in the Door, ſaying, "D—n you for a "Scoundrel! take that!" then marched Home in Triumph with the ſame Valour and Conduct as he came. Since which, as the braveſt Spirits are the moſt forgiving, he has ſuffered his Indignation to cool, and has laid up his truſty Sword, till the next Campaign, in Tothill-Fields, gives him an Opportunity to uſe it with more Glory; and the Quarrel has been amicably adjuſted.

Col. Charteris and his Lady being perfectly reconciled to each other, and having made proper Diſpoſitions for cohabiting together, he having Caſhired his Man Truſty Jack, and others of his evil Agents; they are to be preſented to their Majeſties on that Occaſion.

N. B. This Paper is allowed, by unprejudiced Perſons, to be a very uſeful and much-wanted Collection. The News Part is calculated chiefly for ſuch as have no Reliſh for Political Letters, &c. but yet are willing, once a Week, to know what is tranſacting in the World, without being at the Expence of ſuch a Multiplicity of Papers as are neceſſary to pick it out by Piecemeal. Not but that many of thoſe who read the News daily, may be diſpoſed to ſee the Marrow of the whole Week's Occurrences in one ſuccinct, methodical View. The Exactneſs and Regularity which it, and always ſhall be obſerved in the Prices and Variations of Goods and Stocks, and in the Courſe of Exchange, do, we now find, induce many to keep it by them. Nor is the Shipping Liſt (which is as exact and complete as the Nature of the Thing will poſſibly admit of) leſs acceptable to thoſe concerned in Foreign Trade, or who have Friends, &c. on Voyages. Without Vanity, it may be aſſerted, That of all the Papers now extant, not one contains ſo large a Quantity of well-collected News, is ſo neatly printed, or of ſuch univerſal Utility.——Whereas unfair Practices have been made uſe of to obſtruct the Circulation of this Paper, thoſe who meet with any Difficulty in being ſupplied, on ſending to the Printer, may have it regularly delivered. Alſo, ſuch as want them for the Country, may be there ſupplied over Night to go with To-day's Poſt.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

To be Lett,

THE Swan Inn in Hammersmith, being lately compleatly fitted up, and at a reasonable Rent. The Goods in the House to be sold; together with a long Lease of the said Inn, as appraised by indifferent Persons. Particulars whereof may be had at the House, or at Mr. Gary's, Attorney, in Beaufort Buildings in the Strand. NB. The Person who takes the Inn, may, if he pleases, have the Stage Coaches, and Horses, upon the same Footing.

WHEREAS Joseph Hinchcliff, Cutler, who commonly goes by that Name, lately came from Sheffield in Yorkshire, and now Apprentice to Jesson Cooper, Cutler, living at the Three Tuns in Bunhill-Row, in the Parish of St. Giles's Cripplegate, who went away from his Master on Thursday July the 30th, and robbed his said Master of a Pair of Buck's Skin Breeches, Linnen, and other Things of Value. The said Joseph Hinchcliff is about Five Foot Eight Inches high, a fresh Countenance, somewhat pitted with the Small-Pox; and had on, when he went away, a light coloured Yorkshire Country Coat, and blue gray Wastecoat and Buck's Skin Breeches. Whoever will secure the said Joseph Hinchcliff, and give Notice to his said Master, Jesson Cooper, shall be handsomely Rewarded,

By me, JESTON COOPER.

At the Desire of Mr. DANIEL HARROD, this Publick Notice is given,

THAT five large Stones, with many others of lesser Sizes, and great Quantities of Gravel, were voided by him, by only drinking the WATERS of PANCRAS WELLS a few Days: Of whom more Satisfaction may be had, at his House in Hedge Row in Islington; or at Mr. RICHARD BRISTOW'S, Goldsmith, near Bride Lane in Fleetstreet; where these Stones may be seen: And the Pancras Mineral WATERS, as also Bristol and Bath WATERS, Are sold, and deliver'd to any Part of London, the two former at 6 s. and the latter at 7 s. 6 d. per Dozen, Bottles and all.

Besides the Virtues of the PANCRAS WATERS, in curing the Stone and Gravel, the Strangury, Suppression of Urine, and all Obstructions and Ulcerations of the Kidneys, Ureters or Bladder, they are equally successful in the King's Evil, the Scurvy, Leprosy, Sutticis, Fiery Itchings, Blains, Pustules or Breakings out, and Inflamations of any Kind in any Part of the Body; they wonderfully purify and sweeten the Blood and Juices, cleanse and heal internal and external Ulcers, tho' of the most corrosive Nature, and effectually cure Weakness of either Sex, from what Cause soever proceeding, in a few Days. Several other Distempers they are greatly serviceable in, which, and the manner of taking them, is added to Mr. HARROD'S more particular Account of his Cures; and may be had at Mr. Bristow's, where these Waters are only sold in London, to be depended upon as genuine.

N.B. The Pancras Waters Answer all the Ends of the Waters of Holt in Wiltshire with this Advantage, that a much less Quantity of them is necessary to be taken in the Cure of any Distemper; they are very grateful to the Taste, agree well with, and exceedingly strengthen the Stomach, will keep many Years without losing their Virtue, and may be taken in any Season.

N.B. Mr. David Thomas, who keeps the Bowling Greens in Cupid's Gardens, Lambeth, desires it may be publish'd, that by only drinking the Waters of he voided a great deal of Gravel, and a large Worm; he had been afflicted with violent Fits of the Gravel, and gnawing Pains at his Stomach, for some Years before, but has continued perfectly free from both Complaints ever since the 8th of February last, which was the first time he drank these Waters. He is now in the 65th Year of his Age.
